Frank Ladner Award

Introduction

The Canadian Roofing Contractors Association, through the Frank Ladner Award recognizes a person for their outstanding technical contribution to the roofing industry.

This award was established in honour of CRCA's first Technical Director, Frank Ladner to recognize his technical contribution to the Canadian roofing industry.

An active participant of the roofing industry for almost 40 years, Frank Ladner held degrees in Civil and Mining Engineering. In 1967, Mr. Ladner joined the CRCA National Technical Committee and became CRCA's first Technical Director in 1975. He served in this position until his death in 1982.

The award consists of a plaque. A plaque hangs in the CRCA office in Ottawa which displays each recipient's name.

Eligible nominees will have demonstrated the quality of providing outstanding technical knowledge to the roofing industry. Terms of the award are below.

The recipient of this prestigious award will be selected by the CRCA Board of Directors from nominations submitted from any part of Canada to the CRCA.
